

CALENDAR OF EVENTS 2018-2019

Wednesday
June 27
8:30 am

Summer Tour
“Mysteries of the Mounds”
Hoard Historical Museum, Jefferson County Park
Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin

We explored Indian mound cultures at the Hoard Historical Museum and at the Jefferson County Indian Mounds and Trail Park.

Thursday
September 13
9:30 am

Fall Coffee
“We Gotta Get Out of This Place: The Soundtrack of the Vietnam War”
Veteran and the book’s co-author Doug Bradley
Nakoma Golf Club

Through music, U.S. troops connected to each other and to the world back home. Bradley will demonstrate music’s importance to every group of Vietnam Veterans.

Saturday
December 15
5:30 pm

Candlelight Concert and Dinner
HKD Tango
Music and Performance
Maple Bluff Country Club

Join us for an evening of music and artistry. HKD Tango, a professional tango school in Madison, will be performing Tango dances to the sensuous and iconic music of Argentina, which is internationally famous and enjoyed by many.

Early February

Stay-at-Home Scholarship Benefit

Thursday
March 21
11:00 am

Spring Luncheon
The Driftless Reader
Editors Curt Meine and Keefe Keeley
Nakoma Golf Club

Glaciers bypassed the Driftless Area, preserving an ancient landscape. Curt Meine and Keefe Keeley celebrate the unique people, landscape, and culture of the region.

Wednesday
May 8
11:00 am

Luncheon and Annual Meeting
Vicars of Vegetables
Professors Irwin Goldman and Jim Nienhuis
Nakoma Golf Club

“Life begins on the day you start a garden” is a Japanese proverb. UW Horticulture professors Goldman and Nienhuis will show us how gardens inspire smiles, tears, and even poetry.

For detailed information about each program, visit our web site www.univleague.wisc.edu or, see The League Letter.